Children need to be left with an alternate adult while you volunteer.

Thank you!

Art with Adam is back!

Now on Wednesday afternoons at 4pm on zoom! Great for children of all ages!

I started "Art with Adam" at the start of the pandemic, using art to spread happiness and joy to those children who are stuck inside all day! I'll be drawing along with children and giving some basic, child friendly art lessons! We will be talking about lines, shapes and colors. Highlighting special artists and styles from week to week. Let's share our stories and make some art together!

I am happy to be back and I thank you all for joining me on this adventure!
If you would like to join, visit my website <https://adam-carlson.com/art-with-adam>
